

Workers were asked what is most valuable in helping achieve long-term financial security
How valuable are each of the following in helping you achieve long-term financial security?

Percentage ranking each item as most valuable

Your ability to earn a living

Retirement savings

Savings and investments other than retirement savings

Your home

Medical insurance

Personal possessions

Source: The 2008 CDA Worker Disability Planning and Preparedness Study